The Hindu princess, Chitra, has been reared as a boy, losing much of her feminine charm and fascina-

when she shall have to give up her beauty. The gods, however, assure her that the time will come when Arjuna will long for the truth of her real self. The drama takes us through the gradual dying out of the first sensuous ecstasy and as Arjuna turns again to the life of action and responsibility, he becomes interested in the Princess Chitra, whom he hears spoken of as "a man in valor, a woman in tenderness." At the

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup Ensily and Chenply Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup, and watch that cough vanish.

Pour the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of 82. A day's use will usually exercome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concern.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Dr. Osler on Tuberculosis

Dr. Osler on Tuberculosis

Sir William Osler, one of the foremost of living medical men, formerly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and now Regins Professor of Medicine at Oxford, says in his "Practice of Medicine" (1882), on page 249:

"The benling of pulmonary tuberculosis is shown clinically by the recovery of patients in whose sputa clastic tissue and bacilli have been found.

"In the granulations products and associated pucumoula a sear tissue is formed, while the samiler caseous areas become impregnated with lime saits. To such conditions nione should the term healing be applied."

Many eminent medical authorities have testified to the efficacy of lime saits in the treatment of tuberculosis, and the success of Eckman's Alterative in this and ailted throat and broughtal affections may be due partly to the fact that it contains a lime sait so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Widespread use of this remedy in numerous cases of tuberculosis—many of which appear to have yielded completely to it—justifies our belief that it is worth a trial, unless some other treatment already is succeeding it contains no opiates, narrotics or habit-forming drugs. We make no promises concerning it any more that reputable physicians give promises with their prescriptions, but we know of many cases in which IT HAS HELPED.

years ago today the Massachusetts vice. Humane Society built its first but on Lovell's Island near Boston to succor the stranded mariners along the dangerous and desolate Cape Cod coast. From that little dark red hut, the first house of mercy of the sea to be erected, arose a score of like huts along the coast that had been bleached with the bones of sailors for two centuries. In 1897 the first life boat station was organized at Cohasset and out of that sprung the most efficient life-saving service of all the seven seas. At first if the wrecked and frozen sailor were lucky enough to land at one of these huts he found dry clothing and food and bedding and wood and the old flint and tinder to kindle a fire. This new haven of refuge lacked only the voice of a human brother to welcome him. It was on a storm March night in 1807 that the first life boat on the American coast bat tled through the raging surf and pick ed up a half dozen sailors from a stranded schoner. In 1848 congress recognized the noble work of this society by granting it an appropria tion of $10,000. Then the governmen on Cape Cod But not till the winter of 1871 did it put its heart ar-

Today there is a little army of 2,000 superb but slient beroes who nightly for eight months in the year patrol the longest and one of the most dangerous coasts in the world If one could behold the scope of the work in a single glance he could see that these 2,000 men meet at a thousand stations on dark and lonely shores and exchange brass checks and bring these checks with them. on their return to their life stations as evidence that they had patrolled the coast. Never has one of these faithful servants failed to come back promptly with the cheek of the patrol, unless he halted by a case of distress, and even then his fellow patrol comes to meet him. Scores of men give their lives to the devouring sea to save life and millions of property. There are now 290 stations on the sea and lake coasts of the United States. There are men in the service who have saved as many as 300 lives and literally every man in the service has been an actor in one or more of its ten thensand here stories. In 1912 rescue service was rendered to 1.671 vessels carrying 6,800 passengers, the total value of these vessels and their eargoes be ing $11,000,000.
